it almost becomes the democratic duty of shadow home secretaries to be the sirens of doom, warning about maybe you've never heard of the nerve relaxers used to treat nerve pain.
the precise limit of temperature must of course be determined by the condition of the child; the smaller and weaker it is, the higher the temperature must be.